

Associated Student Government

Of Pueblo Community College

Preamble

We the students of Pueblo Community College, in order to secure the rights as set forth in “Pueblo Community College Student Handbook,” establish the Associated Student Government –henceforth known as ASG – to guarantee that all student life fees are appropriately allocated to the benefit of the students by providing programs, services, educational and recreational activities to provide a unique college experience. ASG shall also work to create a harmonious relationship between the students, faculty, staff, administration and the greater Pueblo community. By adhering to the right of self-governance, the students of Pueblo Community College sanction the creation and maintenance of the Associated Student Government so long as it maintains its obligations and duties to the students with honor, dignity and trust.

Article I. Name and Purpose

Section 1: Name

The name of this organization shall be known as Associated Student Government of Pueblo Community College.

Section 2: Purpose

The purpose of ASG is to ensure that the students of Pueblo Community College have a voice in the daily operations of the college and to provide a great college experience to the students.

- Mission Statement- Empower students by creating opportunities to become involved and provide leadership while collaborating with the college and community in order to establish a supportive environment for our PCC students so they become personally enriched.

Section 3: Objectives

The objectives of ASG shall be the following:

1. Be the official voice through which student opinions, concerns and ideas may be expressed to internal and external constituencies.
2. Promote the educational experience and opportunities of the student body by working to expand student participation and involvement on campus.
3. Oversee the activities related to student fee assessment and allocation.
4. Protect the individual rights and freedoms of students.
5. Acknowledge all official student organizations.

Associated Student Government
Of Pueblo Community College

6. Receive, investigate, and take action on student complaints, concerns, and problems within the scope of its authority.

Section 4: Constituency

All students who are registered for a credit bearing course shall be considered constituents of the Associated Student Government, hereinafter referred to as the student body.

Section 5: Authority

ASG is to be bound by this document and the policies and regulations that may derive from it, barring any amendments introduced through the established process. (Note the Fremont, Durango, and Mancos/Cortez Sites may be flexible to this constitution in terms of their respective ASG and club regulations, as student participation is proportioned to enrollment.) (see: Article XIII. Amendments)

Section 6: Fees

Fees shall be implemented according to the Colorado Community College System's fee policy and/or state fiscal rules.

Article II. Guaranteed Rights

Section 1: Bill of Rights

The following rights are to be guaranteed to the students of Pueblo Community College and to be regarded as absolute. These rights shall not be infringed.

1. Suits: The right, if aggrieved, to bring suit within the regular judiciary system for any punitive violation of rights.
2. Due Process: The right to judicial due process, including the accused being informed of the nature and cause of the accusation, a speedy and impartial hearing, confrontation of plaintiff and witnesses, have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his or her defense, counsel, presumption of innocence, and an appeal. The accused shall not be tried twice for the same offense nor be forced to neither testify against him or her nor be subject to unusual or excessive punishment.
3. Privacy of Records: The right to privacy of their academic, non-academic, disciplinary, and financial records with the right of personal examination of such records.
4. Information: The right to obtain truthful and full information, upon inquiry, on the reasons for any college policy affecting them, the adoption proceedings of said policy, and the options by which it may be changed.

Associated Student Government

Of Pueblo Community College

Section 2: Charter Approval

To become an ASG Chartered Organization on the Pueblo Community College Orman campus, the student organization must submit an application for Charter to the ASG Executive Branch. Upon approval from the ASG Executive Branch, the Club must then be voted into ASG by the Senate. Charter will be awarded for a one year period and must be renewed before the end of September each year. New clubs will have the opportunity to charter in the September, October and February Senate Meetings.

Section 3: Organization Composition

Student Organizations must meet the following requirements to be chartered under ASG.

Section 3A: Executive Board

Each organization must have a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and an ASG Senator as their minimum officers. If an Organization's membership falls below five, it will be given one year to rebuild the minimum level before its charter is terminated.

Section 3B: Senator

1. The Chartered Organization must have an elected, or appointed, Senator or an Alternate Senator at all ASG Senate meetings. This is a voting seat and the Senator will receive a monetary stipend from ASG. This position must be filled by a person who meets the membership criteria as set forth in this ASG Constitution. If a vacancy occurs in the Senate seat, it must be filled by the next ASG Senate meeting. Each organization is permitted only one voting seat at any ASG Senate meeting. If the Senator and the Alternate Senator both attend an ASG Senate meeting, only the Senator's vote will be recognized. Each Organization Senator shall represent one organization at a time.
2. Chartered Organizations that do not provide in writing the names of its new Senator to the ASG Executive Branch by October 1 or February 1, will not have a voting seat in the ASG Senate meetings during the semester.
3. Chartered Organizations will be considered unrepresented for the rest of the semester in the ASG Senate if its Senator and Alternate Senator miss two Senate meetings.

Associated Student Government
Of Pueblo Community College

Section 3C: Advisor

1. Chartered Organizations will have a minimum of one official advisor who is an employee of Pueblo Community College. Each meeting, whether official or unofficial, must have an advisor in attendance. In addition, Advisors will only advise one organization at a time.
2. Advisors must be present during any travel, student activities, or events held on or off of the PCC Orman Campus, including pre-authorized out-of-state travels. If an advisor cannot attend an event, then an authorized Pueblo Community College Representative must be approved by the college.

Section 4: Chartered Organization Funding

1. After an Organization has been officially chartered, the Treasurer and the Advisor must open an Account in the PCC Business Office. Use of all funds must meet ASG's and PCC's policies. All financial transactions will be made through the PCC Business Office. Chartered organizations are not permitted to have fiscal accounts outside of PCC. Cash payments from funds collected are not permitted. If for any reason an organization loses its chartered status, all money gained must be returned to ASG's account.
2. First time organizations will receive a onetime start-up incentive of $300 once approved by senate. Any organization that has been active within the previous four semesters will not be considered first time and will not receive the start-up incentive.
3. All active chartered organizations are eligible to receive $250 at the conclusion of the fall and spring semesters pending completion of the following club requirements set forth by ASG.
 - a. Participate in a minimum of one previously approved community service event per semester.
 - b. Must participate in Fall Fest and Spring Fling.
 - c. The organization cannot miss more than one senate meeting per semester.
4. It is not the function of ASG to provide funds for Chartered Organizations, or their activities, but to provide organizational support for those Organizations and activities.

Section 5: Failure to Comply

Chartered Organizations will not be permitted to conduct events or fundraisers or to represent itself as an official Pueblo Community College Chartered Club if it fails to comply with this ASG Constitution.

Article VII. Meetings and Quorum

The ASG Executive Directors (see: Article IV. Section 1) will receive a stipend of $1,000.00 per fall and spring semesters, and $300.00 for the summer semester. The stipend will be awarded after all responsibilities have been met and an evaluation of performance has been completed at the conclusion of each semester with the ASG Advisor.

Section 1F: State Student Advisory Council Representative Compensation

The State Student Advisory Council Representative will receive a stipend of $500 per fall and spring semesters, and $300 for the summer semester. In addition to the stipend, the SSAC Representative will be reimbursed for all required costs associated with local travel to and from SSAC Meetings and Retreats. This reimbursement will cover the cost of food, lodging and mileage. The stipend will be awarded after all responsibilities have been met and an evaluation of performance has been completed at the conclusion of each semester with the ASG advisor.

Section 1G: Ex-Officio Compensation

The PCC Panther will receive a stipend of $500 per semester for the fall and spring semesters. The stipend will be awarded after all responsibilities have been met at the conclusion of each semester.

Section 2: Legislative Compensation

All voting Organization Senators will receive a stipend in the amount of $150.00 per semester after all responsibilities have been successfully fulfilled, and all paperwork has been completed. Senators who fail to submit all appropriate paperwork to Human Resources by predetermined deadlines will not be compensated.

Section 4: Compensation Timeline

1. Payments will be made after the last regular meeting of the fall and spring semesters for the Executive and Legislative Branches.
2. ASG Executive's compensation for the summer session will be paid by the first regular meeting of the fall semester.

Associated Student Government
Of Pueblo Community College

Section 5: Compensation Revocation:

Any ASG Executive or Organization Senator who misses more than two regular meetings in a semester will not be eligible for compensation. If any ASG Executive or Senator is found to have violated Pueblo Community College's Academic and/or Student Code of Conduct, the student will not be compensated. In the case of a paid position that has been filled due to a vacancy during the semester, the stipend will be pro-rated, as long as all other criteria are met.

Article X. Vacancies and Executive Appointments

Section 1: President and Vice-President

1. In the case that the office of the President becomes vacant the Vice-President shall assume the duties of President.
2. In the case of a Vice-Presidential vacancy a special election will be held to fill the position.
3. In the case that any other Executive position becomes vacant; the President and Vice-President shall assume the duties of that position until a new member can be selected.

Section 2: Appointment of Directors

Appointments shall take place after the annual spring election, if positions are vacant. Interested candidates must submit an application for the ASG Executive Branch to the ASG Advisor. The ASG Executive Branch will then interview each candidate for their desired position. The ASG Executive Branch will then choose the candidate(s) best suited for the available position(s), and present them to Senate for approval by simple majority vote. The approved candidate(s) will assume all responsibilities of their office immediately after their appointment.

Article XI. Attendance

Because the Executive Branch plays a vital role in the overall operation of the organization attendance at Executive Branch meetings is very important. All Executives are required to attend all meetings if possible. We realize that things come up at the last minute so some flexibility is built in. Executives are expected to contact the President of ASG at least two hours prior to the meeting if possible.

The following describes the details of the attendance policy:

Associated Student Government

Of Pueblo Community College

1. Each Executive Board Officer will be allowed two unexcused absence each semester.
2. An absence will be considered excused if the President was contacted at least two hours before the meeting. Such circumstances as medical or family emergencies and inclement weather are all excused absence.
3. If the President is contacted after two hours prior to the meeting it is at the discretion of the Advisor to count it as an excused absence.
4. After the second unexcused absence the President and Advisor will have a meeting with that Executive Branch member to discuss his/her lack of attendance.
5. If the meeting is ignored the President will ask for the resignation of the member and proceed with removal procedures (see: Article VIII. Section 2).

Article XII. Parliamentary Authority

Robert's Rules of Order will govern the procedural actions of the ASG Executive Branch and Legislative Branch in all cases to which it is applicable and not otherwise provided for in local, state, federal law, the rules and regulations of Pueblo Community College, or in this ASG Constitution.

Article XIII. Amendment

The following process must be adhered to if an amendment to this constitution is proposed:

1. If an amendment is proposed by any student it must be supported by ten percent of the student body in the form of a signed petition.
2. All proposed constitution amendments must be published and posted in the Student Center building two days before being voted on.
3. The proposal must be approved by the Executive Branch by two-thirds majority vote.
4. The Executive Branch will then present the proposed amendment(s) to the Legislative Branch for approval by two-thirds majority vote.
5. The Legislative Branch will then ratify the proposed amendment, if it does not contradict this Constitution, by two-thirds majority vote.
