GOOD STUFF

Drop-in fitness classes

PCC students, faculty and staff can join in on these fitness classes that will be meeting until the week of final exams:

- Zumba at 5:15 pm on Tuesdays
- Core Strength Workout at 5:15 on Wednesdays
- A Hip-Hop Aerobics at 6:15 pm on Wednesdays

All take place in the Fortino Ballroom. The classes are free to PCC students with a current PCC ID card and to PCC Fitness Center members. There is a $5 admission per session for non-PCC Fitness Center members. Call 549-3019 for info.

Let's see your creativity

Final Note, PCC's art and literary journal, is now accepting submissions for the 2010 issue. It welcomes poems, stories, scripts, photographs and pictures of visual works of art such as paintings and sculptures. Send a selection from your best work to thejournal@pueblocc.edu by May 1.

Free immunizations for students

The PCC Health Clinic is offering to immunize all allied health, Cosmetology and Culinary Arts program students for FREE! The immunizations include MMR (measles, mumps, rubella), Hepatitis B, TDAP (tetanus, diphtheria, pertussis). Students who start their Hepatitis B or MMR series by Aug. 10 can complete the vaccine series at no charge. To make an appointment, call 549-3315.

Make sure your ride is safe

You can still sign up for the Automotive Spring Safety Inspection and Service Clinic to be held Monday and Tuesday, March 29 & 30. Call 549-3354 or e-mail Robert.Maez@pueblocc.edu.
