OPPORTUNITIES

Pell Grants

Yes, there will be Pell Grants this Summer (as well as Federal Direct Stafford student loans). You must have already filled out a FAFSA form. Then fill out a simple Summer Intent form, which is a snap. There are restrictions, so find out about your Pell Grant eligibility by contacting the Financial Aid office at Financial.aid@pueblocc.edu or by seeing a financial aid advisor in the Go!Zone or at your branch campus.

Summer classes

The Summer semester will begin May 31, the day after Memorial Day. Class schedules are on the PCC website - www.pueblocc.edu. Register now!

Pamper yourself

Massage Therapy students are offering 1-hour massages to faculty, staff and students for just $20 May 16 thru July 6 between the hours of 4:30 and 8 pm Mon-Thur. Call 549-3083 to make an appointment.

Orientation May 26

There will be an orientation session for new students from 9 am to 2 pm Thursday, May 26, on the Pueblo campus. Orientations are required for new students and make a huge impact on academic success. Sign up at the Go!Zone desk.

Going for Gold

A great evening consisting of a tasty barbecue dinner, exquisite socializing, fun entertainment and even a silent auction has been cooked up for Friday, June 17, when the "Going for Gold at the Gorge" extravaganza will take place from 6 to 9 pm at the Royal Gorge Bridge & Park. The dinner will be a BBQ buffet feast. Music by Tom Munch and the Atomic Fireballs. Tickets are $35 each and tables for eight are $250. Make reservations at 296-6106 or via fax at 269-8936.

WANTED

Orientation leaders

Group facilitators and session co-presenters are needed for orientation sessions that will be held in May, July and August. Contact Dennis Trujillo Johnson at 549-3035 or Rachel Anderson at 549-3019 if you can help out and make a difference.

Be a Student Ambassador

The Office of Recruitment is hiring for the new Student Ambassador team. The starting pay is $8.25/hr and hours are flexible. Applications are available at the Go!Zone Help Desk in the Student Center, and the application deadline is June 17. For info, contact Dominique at dominique.son@pueblocc.edu or at 549-3182.

Apply to TRiO SSS

PCC's TRiO Student Support Services/Project Success is accepting applications for the 2011-2012 academic year. TRiO SSS helps first-generation, low-income, and disabled students overcome class, social, academic and cultural barriers to higher education. It provides a variety of services that support college education success. For more info on applying, call 549-3045 or stop at Davis AB-174.

Join marching band

PCC students are invited to join the CSU-Pueblo ThunderWolves Marching Band this fall. The university offers PCC students up to $400 to cover the bulk of the cost of tuition, fees and additional items required, including an instrument rental if needed. They also can get the $25 application fee waived. Students pay for their class and fees up front and, upon successful completion of the class, receive a refund. To get more information about this, contact Alan Mills, CSU-Pueblo's Director of Bands/Assistant Professor of Music, at 549-2521 or at alan.mills@colostate-pueblo.edu.
