VETERANS DAY CELEBRATION TUESDAY

PCC veterans (students & staff) eat free. Everyone is invited to this Tuesday's Veterans Day Celebration on PCC's Pueblo campus. It will begin with an outdoor flag ceremony in the central courtyard. Here is the agenda:

- Flag Ceremony: 10:30 am, courtyard
- Lunch: 11 am, Pueblo Joe's
- Angel Fire Video: Noon, Barb Fortino Room

Those planning to attend the luncheon are asked to RSVP at 549-3061. The lunch is free to PCC students and staff who have served in the military. It is $6.95 for others. The showing of the Angel Fire video will be hosted by Larry Alvarado, a local Vietnam veterans advocate.

HAPPENINGS

Theatre presentations of "Joan"

The play "Joan," based on the life of Joan of Arc, will be presented in Hoag Theatre by our theater students at 7:30 pm on Friday and Saturday evenings both this weekend (Nov. 13-14) and Nov. 20-21.

Tickets are $7 for general admission and $5 for students and seniors. For reservations and more information, call 549-3387. A reception with the cast and directors will follow for all those attending the Nov. 20 show. This play was written by PCC theater director Jean Fish-Enclade and the late Con Jeffries.

Mini-workshops
Maximize your knowledge of subject matter by attending Career Counselor Kathy Johnson's "Text Anxiety Prevention" mini-workshop at either 11:45 am Tuesday, 12:15 pm Wednesday or 11:15 am Friday, all in the Learning Center. These are 30 minutes, free and open to everyone.

Get your FREE e-mail activated. Student Ambassadors will be near Pueblo Joe's from 9 am to 2 pm Tuesday & Thursday to help students activate their free PCC e-mail accounts.

War vets can get counseling help. Lawrence Dunbar from the U.S. Dept. of Veterans Affairs will be on our Pueblo campus from 9 am to 3 pm this Wednesday, Nov. 11, to visit with war veterans concerning counseling services that are available. You can visit with him in Room 161A of the College Center.

Foundation to honor donors
The PCC Foundation will host its annual Donor Appreciation Dinner this Friday, Nov. 13, starting with a social hour at 6 pm and followed by dinner and a program honoring our many donors.
