FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – December 15, 2011

Channel 19's holiday schedule to showcase most popular shows

PUEBLO – The Cannon Game. The Parade of Lights. CSU-Pueblo football. The Colorado State Fair Parade. The Bell Game. The “Ask a Lawyer” program.

These are just a few of the most popular shows that were broadcast on Comcast cable Channel 19 in 2011, with the majority of them covered by Pueblo Community College's Center for New Media. Viewers will be able to enjoy watching them again on Christmas Day, New Year's Eve and New Year's Day on Channel 19.

Christmas Day's programming will kick off with “The Best of Pueblo PBR” at 12 a.m., and the Cannon Game between Pueblo's East and South high school football teams at 8:30 p.m. will conclude the day's broadcasts. Seven hours of “Keepin' It Reel” episodes will start the New Year's Eve feast at 12 a.m., and “Access Unlimited” will close the day at 11 p.m. New Year's Day will start at 12 a.m. with the Centennial-East prep football game and will conclude with the Bell Game between Central and Centennial at 8:30 p.m.

Here is the complete schedule of broadcasts scheduled those days on Channel 19, which is one of four public access channels operated by PCC:
