BOOK IT

■ Massages - Your last chance to get a 1-hour massage from a Massage Therapy student for just $20 is thru Wednesday, July 6. Appointments can be booked for times between the hours of 4:30 and 8 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Call 549-3083 to make an appointment.

■ Auto clinic - For those of you who have made appointments to have your vehicles inspected, remember that the Auto Preventative Maintenance Clinic will take place this Tuesday and Wednesday, July 5 & 6. If you still want to get in on the action and are wondering if there are any open slots remaining, contact Steve Herrera at either 549-3216 or sjherrera@student.cccs.edu.

■ Theater - Looking ahead a bit, our Theater Department will utilize interactive technology and a cast of almost 2 dozen individuals of a wide age range during the new-wave production of "The Tempest" on Thursday thru Saturday, July 21-23, in our outdoor Wells Fargo amphitheater. Shows will be free, with the hat passed around afterward for donations. Each show will begin at 7 pm.

HAPPENINGS

■ Female Felons - A presentation of "Forgotten Female Felons" will be given by local history author Sherry Johns at 2 p.m. this Saturday, July 9, in PCC's Hoag Theatre. Tickets for the show are $10 and available at the PCC Foundation office in the Davis Academic Building. They also will be available, space permitting, the day of the show. For more info, call the Foundation at 549-3303.

■ Kids' College - Kids' College classes will resume Monday, July 11, with new classes for kids in grades 4 and up. Classes will run for three weeks, with new courses starting each week. Get your kids registered to learn new things while they have fun at the same time. To look at the complete Kids' College schedule of classes, go to:

www.pueblocc.edu/CommunityOutreach/KidsCollege/
Schedules also are available in the CETD office, located in GATC-201A and in other campus bins. For more info: call 549-3267 or send an e-mail to kari.yalotz@pueblocc.edu.

■ HIT orientation - An orientation session for the Health Information Technology's Implementation Management & Support certificate program will take place 5:30 to 7 pm Tuesday, July 12, in the Barb Fortino Room in the Student Center. Classes are hybrid (some online, some classroom) and can be started either July 23 or July 26. Each class is 6 weeks long, the program includes 19½ credits, and the certificate must be completed within 6 months of starting. RSVP to the orientation by e-mail to Hitech@pueblocc.edu or by calling 562-7049.

■ Recycle phone books - You can recycle your old Pueblo phone book and get a new one in its place this Wednesday, July 6, in the PCC Print Shop, located in back of the main MT Building wing. Look for the blue recycling bin there.

■ Municipal Band concert - The next Pueblo Municipal Band concert in our amphitheater will take place at 7 pm this Sunday, July 10. It's free.
