FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – February 9, 2010

‘Cup of Tea at PCC’ scheduled Feb. 16 to celebrate Women’s History Month

PUEBLO – Pueblo Community College figures that a great way to celebrate Women’s History Month is by having a special day for women. Hence, it has scheduled “A Cup of Tea at PCC” from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 16, in its Fortino Ballroom.

Women are invited to bring their daughters, sisters, mothers or friends to enjoy some savory and sweet treats over tea while learning about the history of this afternoon meal and the traditions associated with Cream Tea, Low Tea and High Tea. Guys are invited to join their girlfriend or wife for the event.

The program will begin with musical entertainment provided by the PCC Performing Arts Club at 11:30 a.m. that will be followed by the tea time from noon to 1:30 p.m. and a women’s health fair from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m.

The cost is $8 for community members or $5 for PCC students and staff. The cost for two community members attending together is $15, and it is $8 for two PCC students or staff members. RSVPs are required by calling 549-3061. Those wanting to attend just the health fair will be admitted to it free.

“A Cup of Tea at PCC” is sponsored by PCC’s Diversity Activities Committee. The Fortino Ballroom is located on the second floor of the College Center.
