

Welcome to PCC

Welcome! Thank you for choosing Pueblo Community College. Your decision to start or continue your education with us is an investment in the future that will reward you with great dividends.

Our vision is to develop and support learning that leads to positive change in the lives of those we serve. We accomplish this vision by creating learning opportunities through excellence in teaching and service.

While you are attending classes here at PCC, remember that every member of our faculty and staff shares your goals for educational success. Whether you are here to take a single skills-specific course, earn a certificate that will enable you to move into a higher-paying career field, or complete classes before transferring to a four-year college or university, I am confident PCC will exceed your expectations.

You will find faculty and staff and a learning environment that is designed to prepare you for your career and educational goals. I am especially proud of the small classes and personal attention every student receives. We have modern facilities, state-of-the-art computer labs, and a wide range of support services.

Please make this a special time in your life. You are preparing for a world filled with new opportunities. Best wishes for an enlightening and rewarding experience here at Pueblo Community College.
