HAPPENINGS

■ Poetry reading - The PCC library is sponsoring a poetry reading by Maria Melendez from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m. Tuesday on the second floor of the library. Melendez is the author of three books of poetry. She lives in Pueblo and is editor and publisher of Pilgrimage Magazine.

■ Student art show - The best artwork by PCC students during the spring semester will be on display beginning Thursday at the student art show reception and awards presentation from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. in the San Juan Building. The award winners will announced at about 5:30 p.m. in Room 214. Artwork categories are drawing, painting, photography, ceramics, jewelry and sculpture.

■ Theater shows - PCC theater students will present 4 performances of "Cinderelly," on April 27-30, with all shows at 7:30 p.m. in Hoag Theatre. The play is a takeoff on Cinderella but in a comedic Western melodramatic format. It is the first play written by Susan Peltó, a PCC employee in the Fine Arts & Humanities Department. Admission is $5 for students, seniors & kids under 10 and $7 for PCC staff and community members.

■ Conversation Days - PCC President Patty Erjavec will bring her series of "Conversation Days" to the SCCC campuses this week to meet with PCC students, faculty and staff as well as community members. Sessions will be at 10 am & 3 pm Wednesday for Durango and 11:30 am Thursday for Mancos/Cortez.

■ Fitness classes - The 5 pm fitness classes this week are zumba on Tuesday and belly dancing on Wednesday, both in Student Center 161A.

■ SCCC West Spring Fling - This will take place from 11:30 am to 1 pm Thursday, with games and activities along with a BBQ lunch of hamburgers, hot dogs, chips, watermelon and soda and water.
