TALKING TURKEY

Thanksgiving baskets

Associated Student Government has organized our PAWS Thanksgiving basket drive on the Pueblo campus, but clubs as well as individual students, staff and faculty members also have contributed baskets, food or money to the cause of making the holiday tastier for some of our students. Now it's time to stuff the baskets with food. Here are the key dates & times:

Basket assembly in ASG office:

- Monday, Nov. 15, 5-8 pm
- Tuesday, Nov. 16, 1-5 pm

Basket pickup times:

- Nov. 18-23, 8 am-5 pm, either in the ASG office or Student Center Room 240

Holiday week classes

The Turkey day is almost here, and PCC will celebrate Thanksgiving Day by having NO CLASSES Wednesday - Sunday, Nov. 25-27. Yes, that means there are classes on Monday

SAFETY WEEK

Be smart, be aware

Student Safety Week on tap this week aims to help students be safe, healthy and alive through these events on the Pueblo campus:

- Tues, Nov. 16: A car demolished by a drunk driver will be in the courtyard. Trust us - this was no fun accident.
- Wed., Nov. 17: Try the DUI Simulator 11:30-5:30. It will be parked either in Pueblo Joe's or outside on the patio.
- Thurs, Nov. 18: Student Safety Panel 2-3 pm, Ballroom.

HAPPENINGS

Theater takes on a new twist

Our Theatre Dept. and Gypsy House Experience will present "Rosencrantz And Guildenstern are Dead," a play written by Tom Stoppard. This play will be presented at 2 different venues:

A 3-D Theatre Experience

Thursday & Friday, Nov. 18 & 19

Tickets $20, couples $35, Tables for 4: $70
(Price includes burger, side, beer or soda & show)

The audience for this week's shows in Hoag Theatre will get a participation pack to create a 3-D theatre experience. Tickets for all shows are now available at the Gold Dust Saloon. To make reservations for any show, call 719-225-9791.

Parade of Lights

PCC will have a float in the Parade of Lights that will take place at 5:30 pm Saturday, Nov. 27, on Union Ave. Our float will have a Southwest theme. You can help assemble it in the Auto area Nov. 22-24 and also be in the parade. Get info in Student Center Room 240 or the ASG office.

Toy Drive

A "Santa's Sleigh" toy drive will take place Nov. 17 thru Dec. 2 with collection boxes in Pueblo campus buildings. Or you can take them to Student Center Room 240. New toys are preferred. They will go to needy Pueblo families.
