HEALTH OPTIONS

Get a feel for massage
Find out if a career in massage therapy could be the perfect fit for you in the 1-credit "Intro to Massage Therapy" class (HHP 224) that will begin June 1 with the start of the summer semester. This course is the perfect way for you to get a "feel" for massage therapy. Learn this trade in a state-of-the-art facility that houses the Massage Therapy program at the corner of Abriendo and Lincoln avenues. Call 549-3075 for information.

Medical Coding info session slated
An info session to explain the new Medical Coding certificate program will take place from 5 to 8 pm Thursday, May 20, in our Fortino Ballroom. You can prepare for an entry-level position as a coder in an acute care hospital, ambulatory care facility, physician office, long-term care site or other health care settings. For information, call Ginny Sullivan at 549-3317 or e-mail Virginia.Sullivan@pueblocc.edu.

HAPPENINGS

Retirees Luncheon
Retirees of Pueblo Junior College, Southern Colorado State College and Pueblo Community College as well as current PCC folks are invited to visit with other retirees during a luncheon that will take place from 11:30 am to 1 pm Tuesday, May 11, in our Fortino Ballroom. To RSVP and for more information, call 549-3314 or send an e-mail to bianca.flores@pueblocc.edu.

See the Sky Sox on May 16
PCC students and staff can see the Colorado Springs Sky Sox play at 1:05 pm Sunday, May 16, on PCC Day at Security Service Field. Tickets are $20, which includes a box seat ticket, parking pass and $5 in "Sox Bucks" toward goodies. A portion of each ticket will go to the PCC Foundation. For information, send an e-mail to diane.porter@pueblocc.edu.

Gateway to College
If you know someone between the ages of 17 and 20 who has dropped out of high school, encourage them to attend the Gateway to College information session that will take place 5-7 p.m. Monday, May 17, in GATC-226. The program provides an alternate means to receive a high school diploma while earning college credit simultaneously. RSVPs are required by calling 549-3092.

WRITING TIP

Provided by PCC's English Department
Be sure to include a comma after an introductory phrase.

Don't write: "Before eating children should wash their hands."
