Presentation proposals being sought for 27th annual Senior Mini College

CANON CITY – Planning is underway for the 27th annual Senior Mini College that will be held March 26-30 on the Fremont Campus of Pueblo Community College.

To pave the way for a great, quality week of classes, presentation proposals are now being sought from potential instructors. Program proposal applications are available at the PCC Fremont Campus, and interested volunteer presenters may also call the campus at 296-6100 to have an application faxed or emailed to them. The deadline to submit proposals is Jan. 27.

The Senior Mini College is a week-long program comprised of courses and hands-on activities for area senior citizens. Traditionally, presenters at the Mini College include local experts, artists and other accomplished individuals. Topics are exciting and diverse, geared toward personal growth and life-long learning. Past topics have included computer use, art, local history, health and wellness, gardening, fossil hunting, financial planning and safety. There are no tests, grades or credits. The Mini College is open to adults and retirees of all ages. Approximately 350 seniors participate in the Mini College each year.

Anyone interested in setting up a booth at one of the “Resource Days” should contact the College at 296-6110. In order to keep participant costs low, the Fremont Campus and the Senior Mini College planning committee are also seeking donations and sponsors for the event.

For more information call the Fremont Campus at 296-6100.
