YOU CAN HELP

Thanksgiving baskets program
PCC's Associated Student Government is on a mission to provide full Thanksgiving meals to needy PCC students. Both student clubs and individual students, faculty and staff are urged to donate either non-perishable food items (boxed potatoes, boxed stuffing, canned veggies, etc.) or money to the cause. ASG wants to provide 200 baskets, which will include a gift card for a free turkey. Take food items or monetary donations to either Rachel Anderson in CC-240 or the ASG office on the main floor or the CC Bldg. Or they can be picked up by the Mail Room staff.

- Key dates:
- Nov. 9: Food collecting will end
 - Nov. 15: Baskets to be assembled 5-8 pm
 - Nov. 16: Baskets to be assembled 1-5 pm
 - Nov. 18-23: Basket pickup in ASG or CC-240 offices 8 am-5 pm.

HAPPENINGS

Job Fair
PCC will host a Job Fair this Wednesday, Nov. 3, from 10 am to 3 pm in the Fortino Ballroom. The fair is designed to connect students with potential employers and help them learn job-seeking strategies. Employers use the semi-annual event as a recruiting resource. Students are urged to bring copies of their résumé, dress in the proper attire and have a positive attitude. More information is available by contacting Butch Batchelder at 549-3046 or butch.batchelder@pueblocc.edu.

American Pop Star
You'll have the chance to make your own CD thru American Pop Star technology this Wednesday, Nov. 3, from 11:30 am to 5:30 pm in the area by the ATM machine outside Pueblo Joe's.

PCC Night at Dutch Clark
This Friday (Nov. 5) will be PCC Night at Dutch Clark Stadium for the prep football game between Pueblo West and Pueblo South. Our Student Ambassadors will be on hand to chat about PCC with students and pass out PCC trinkets. PCC will be honored at halftime of the game.

GOT GAME?

3-on-3 hoops league forming
PCC is starting an intramural 3-on-3 basketball league for students, with games to be played at Carlile Elementary School just down the street from the Pueblo campus. Teams interested in playing should sign up at the Rec Center by Nov. 18. For more information, contact Rachel Anderson in CC-240.

PLAN AHEAD

Camp Amache movie
Get your tickets for the special presentations of "Camp Amache: The story of an American Tragedy," that will take place at our Fremont Campus at both 3 pm and 6:30 pm on Saturday, Nov. 13. The hour-long documentary tells the story of the wrongful internment of Japanese-Americans and people of Japanese ancestry during WWII. Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for students, and they are available at Master Printers in Canon City, the Fox Den of Antiquity in Florence, and our Fremont Campus.

Roaring Twenties gig
PCC will turn Pueblo Joe's into a Roaring Twenties speakeasy on Friday, Nov. 12, for an evening that will feature a murder mystery dinner, show and dancing. The "Mystery, Murder & Mobsters" show will begin at 5:30 pm and will include cocktails. That will be followed by a gourmet meal and then after-dinner dancing to jazz and ragtime music provided by the Gigs-N-Rigs group. Theme costumes are encouraged. Tickets are $25 and must be purchased in advance by calling 549-3074.

Registration for spring
Registration for spring semester classes at PCC will begin Monday, Nov. 8. In keeping with our going green initiative, PCC will no longer be printing paper course schedules. Students will be able to access the current course schedule by going to the Student Tab on the myPCC Portal, clicking on Registration Tools, then clicking on Look Up Classes, and finally selecting Spring 2011 in the drop-down box.

Thanksgiving break is Nov. 24-28, and there will be no classes held on those days.
