

January 26, 2009
Volume 2, Number 1

Ambassador Wanted

The Student Services Office is seeking applications for an ambassador position.

If you are an energetic person who is willing to work representing the Fremont Campus, please pick up an application in the Enrollment Services Office.

Activity Antics

The Student Advisory Council's first meeting for the Spring 2009 semester will be held Wednesday, January 28, at 2:00pm in the Enrollment Services Office Conference Room. Be involved in decision making and the organization of student events!

Interested students are encouraged to attend.

DON'T FORGET...

....January 27 is the last day to drop a class without consequences - you won't be charged nor will the course be recorded on your transcript.

....to sign up for your PCC email address so you can check you messages!

Instructions are available in the Enrollment Services Office and the Learning Resource Center.

IT'S ACADEMIC

Get a head start with study skills this semester! Visit The Learning Resource Center where an instructor is waiting to reveal the mysteries of Math and Writing.

Math Lab times

Monday and Wednesday, 12-2 and 4-6:30
Tuesday and Thursday, 11:30-1:30

Writing Lab times

Monday and Wednesday, 4-5
Tuesday and Thursday, 5:30 – 6:30
Friday, 9-11 am

"Salute to Southern Colorado Artists"

We are fortunate to feature The Royal Gorge Art Show during the month of February. The works of local artists will grace the halls and also the Learning Center.

The opening reception will be held Friday February 6 from 4-6pm.

Have you noticed Coyote's Coffee Den..

...located across from the Learning Resource Center?

Coyote's serves pasteries, wraps, salads, pizza and a large variety of coffee drinks. Very convenient when you're on the run, they're waiting to serve you!

Dinner with the Dean

You are cordially invited to have dinner with Dean Jennifer Herman. She is waiting to hear your ideas and comments.

Thursday, February 5 @ 5:00pm in the Learning Center