NOTEWORTHY

■ Work-study positions - Students wanting information about available PCC work-study positions can access it on the PCC website:

www.pueblocc.edu/AboutUs/Employment/workstudyemployment.htm.

■ Catch a ride - Shuttle service will again be available to PCC students from 8 am to 10 pm all this week from 5 designated sites on the Pueblo campus. Look for the golf carts having drivers wearing the fluorescent vests. This is a free service aimed at helping students get to their classes on time when having to park in outlying areas on campus.

■ Labor Day - There will be no classes on Monday, Sept. 5, because of the Labor Day holiday, and all of the PCC campuses will be closed that day.

■ More parking - Work has begun on a new parking lot that will be constructed east of the MT Building off the Harrison Street parking lot. The work is expected to be completed by mid-October, and it will add approximately 25 new parking spaces.

HAPPENINGS

■ Drive-In Night - It will be PCC Drive-In Movie Night at the Mesa Drive-In on Santa Fe Drive in the county on Monday, Aug. 29. Showing on the 3 screens will be (Screen 1): The Smurfs and Zookeeper; (Screen 2): Captain America and Planet of the Apes; and (Screen 3): 30 Minutes or Less and Bad Teacher. Games open at 7:30 pm and showtime at dusk. Get your tickets at PCC's Recreation Center.

■ Meet your leaders - Come out and meet the members of your Associated Student Government on Tuesday, Aug. 30, either between 11 am and 1 pm or 3:30 and 5:30 pm in the campus courtyard. Free corn dogs to students with a PCC ID.

■ Bongo Ball, anyone? - A great Bongo Ball Mania adventure will take place 11 am to 4 pm Wednesday, Aug. 31, Bongo Ball Mania is a novelty game that combines the excitement of paintball with the fun of capture the flag. It consists of 4-on-4 competitions as each team maneuvers across the course to capture the other team's flag without being blasted by the opponents' nerf air cannons.

■ Casino Night - You're bound to win something just by showing up for Casino Night from 7 to 10 pm Thursday, Sept. 1, in Pueblo Joe's. While the big prize will be the drawing for a free HP Laptop Notebook, there will be tons of gift cards from local restaurants and the PCC Bookstore as well as free tickets to the State Fair. Local acoustic musician Patrick Kratzer will provide some great background tunes.

■ PCC Night - This Friday has been designated PCC Night at Dutch Clark Stadium when East and Central battle at 7 pm in the prep football season opener. PCC goodies will be given out to fans.

OPPORTUNITIES

■ Have some soul - The AmeriCorps Program at PCC is looking for motivated individuals who are passionate about volunteerism and want to give back to their community through a national program that provides an education award upon completion of service. Opportunities include tutoring, coordinating volunteers, teaching parenting classes, working with youth, recycling, etc. Learn more at 1 of these 3 info sessions scheduled in the Student Center's Barb Fortino Room:
