MONEY TALK

Free tax return preparation

Faculty, staff and students at the Fremont and Pueblo campuses with a family income (with kids) under $49,000 qualify for free tax return preparation provided by trained PCC accounting students on Thursdays and Saturdays in GATC-157 thru March 5. Service hours are 5-7:30 pm on Thursdays and 9 am-3 pm on Saturdays. This offer also is available to members of the community.

Eat at Wendy's, help kids

A Kids' College scholarship fund raiser will take place from 5 to 8 pm Monday, Jan. 31, at the Wendy's restaurant on Northern Avenue on the south side of Pueblo. During those hours, Wendy's will donate 10% of its sales toward that scholarship fund. Those who want to just make a donation to the fund can do so then at Wendy's or at the PCC Foundation office in Davis AB-194A.

PLAN TO GET HEALTHY(ier) THIS SPRING

Take the Challenge

PCC's Ready, Set, Go health and wellness program will launch the Ultimate Panther Fitness Challenge this week, and students and staff can begin signing up for it starting Monday, Jan. 31. It will cost $20, and among the benefits will be health-enhancing educational information and activities related to cooking and exercise, group fitness classes, water bottle, towel or shirt, food journal, and simple daily challenges. The Challenge will last 3 months, and there are cash prizes for the male and female who get the healthiest. Everyone is urged to attend the info meeting set for 5 pm Monday in Pueblo Joe's.

HAPPENINGS

See the film, meet the producers

Showings of a documentary titled "Camp Amache: An American Tragedy" are slated at 2 pm and 5 pm this Saturday, Feb. 5, in Hoag Theatre. Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for students with a current PCC ID card, and they are available at the PCC Foundation office (Davis AB-194A). The 2 creators/producers of the documentary will be on hand afterward for a question-and-answer period.

Wow, a Mad Hatter Party!

Don't be late for this very important date. On Monday, Feb. 7, PCC will fete all of the "Alice in Wonderland" characters with a Mad Hatter Tea Party from 11 am to 1 pm in our Ballroom. It will include savory treats and sweets, croquet and other games, hot tea, and a special showing of the 1903 black-and-white version of "Alice in Wonderland." Tickets are $10 for PCC faculty & staff as well as community members, $9 for PCC students and $4.50 for kids ages 7 and under. Get tickets in the Testing Center, PCC library or Student Center Room 240.

Discuss issues over pizza

Bring your questions or concerns about campus issues or your Higher One Card to the Pizza with ASG forum set for 12:30 - 1:30 pm Tuesday, Feb. 8, in the Davis AB Commons. There will be free pizza for those who bring questions.

Also coming next week:

■ Feb. 10: Vow to complete your PCC degree by committing during Phi Theta Kappa's Pledge to Completion Signing that will begin at noon on the Student Center outdoor patio.

■ Feb. 13: Students can get free help filling out their FAFSA forms between 2 and 4 pm at College Goal Sunday that will take place that day in our Hoag Theatre.
