GOOD STUFF

National Library Week

To celebrate National Library week (April 4-12), the PCC Library has created a display of items from the collection around the themes: "You Read the Book – Now See the Movie" and "Saw the Movie – Read the Book." Check out the display and find something to read or watch this week. The year 2010 has been designated the Year of Mark Twain. He died on April 21, 1910. The PCC Library has created a display of some of his works as well as free handouts about him. This display will be available throughout April.

Get involved!

Associated Student Government is seeking applicants for its officer positions for the 2010-2011 academic year. To find out about the positions available, necessary criteria and/or to get an application, stop in CC-240. The application deadline is 5 pm April 19.

PRO D

CoADE conference
As part of the Colorado Association for Developmental Education's spring conference titled "Teaching Students with Unique Learning Challenges" this Friday, April 9, PCC faculty and staff can attend a 1-hour introductory presentation at 3 pm. It will be given by well-known learning specialist Dr. Paul Nolting in the Barbara Fortino Room. This event is free and no registration is required. On Saturday, there will be a free day of tutor/faculty/staff training for PCC folks with Dr. Nolting and his wife Kimberly. It will take place from 9 am to 3 pm in the Fortino Ballroom. Contact Ross Barnhart for details.

HAPPENINGS

Give blood, save lives
You have the chance to save lives on Monday, April 5, by donating blood on the Pueblo campus between 11 am and 3 pm in the Bonfils Blood Center's bloodmobile, which will be parked on Orman Avenue.

Trauma seminar
Our EMS program will host a trauma seminar for continuing education from 9 am to 3:30 pm Tuesday, April 6, in MT-106. It will feature guest speaker Fidel Garcia, a professional EMS trainer and college instructor. This seminar has several different topics. This is free but RSVPs are required by calling 549-3489.

Snippets
■ Laugh In: The last Comedy Movie Night of the semester for students will be at 7 pm Wednesday, April 7, in Hoag Theatre.

■ Walk-a-thon: The P.S. C.A.R.E. Club invites everyone to join the walk-a-thon around the Pueblo campus at 12:30 pm Thursday, April 8, starting in the amphitheater. The group hopes to raise funds to help the local homeless population.

■ Easy money: Free money never came this easy. With Foundation scholarship applications due on Friday, April 9, a Scholarship Workshop will be held 8 am to 5 pm that day in GATC-121. Get answers, help writing scholarship essays, and assistance with the Foundation scholarship form. Students can walk in at any time, and attendees are eligible for a $200 scholarship via a drawing.

■ Yard Sale: The Health Professions division will be selling a wide range of items from 9 am to 3 pm Friday and Saturday in the courtyard.

■ Induction: Phi Theta Kappa will induct new members at a ceremony scheduled for 3 pm Saturday, April 10, in the Fortino Ballroom. Acting PCC Prez Cliff Richardson will be the speaker.
