Young Puebloans to learn career choices during 8th annual Pueblo Youth Future Fair

PUEBLO – Approximately 450 Pueblo high school students will be encouraged to take an active role in their futures during the eighth annual Pueblo Youth Future Fair (PYFF) that will take place Thursday at Colorado State University-Pueblo.

The students will spend the day visiting with various business representatives from the community, exploring the many opportunities available in the areas of education, careers, and life skills. They will attend two workshops based on their career choices, walk through a career fair expo and hear a motivational speaker.

PYFF is the result of a community vision by various organizations including Pueblo Community College, Junior Achievement of Southern Colorado-Pueblo, Pueblo City Schools, Pueblo Workforce Center, Parkview Medical Center, Imprinted Sportswear, and CSU-Pueblo, all of whom comprise Partners In Education (PIE).

Individuals with general questions, and businesses or individuals interested in donating funds to support the event can call (719) 562-3729.
