GET SKILLS

Customer service classes

PCC is offering a Customer Service Academy certificate program in the spring semester and it will consist of 9 classes that will provide valuable employee skills. Each class is 5 weeks long and worth 1 college credit, and the 9 are divided into 3 consecutive-running classes. Students pick the classes they want to attend, and those completing all 9 earn a college certificate. There are no pre-requisites. For info, contact Jenny Sherman at 549-3076 or Jennifer.Sherman@pueblocc.edu.

I-CAR classes

Our Automotive Collision Tech department will host two I-CAR classes in January for Level I professional development training. The classes:

- "Vehicle Technology and Trends 2011" (NEW11) will meet from 8 a.m. to noon on Jan. 8.
- "Mechanical Systems Analysis" (DAM03) will meet from 8 a.m. to noon on Jan. 22.

Both classes will be held in MT-185. For info, call 549-3249 or e-mail Jim.Torres@pueblocc.edu.

Free OSHA training at Fremont

Students and staff on the Fremont Campus and members of the community have the opportunity to attend free OSHA General Industry Certification training titled "Safety Awareness for Frontline Workers." Training is 1 to 5 pm Tuesday, Wednesday & Thursday (Jan. 4-6). Contact Debbie Clement at 549-3392 by Dec. 22.

WRITING TIP

Provided by PCC's English Department

Even if you don't hear the final "s" on the plural of words ending in "t", put the "s" on anyway. Such nouns as artist, scientist, and novelist all require a final "s" when plural, thus becoming artists, scientists, and novelists.
