

FYI NEWS

NOVEMBER 4, 2005
Volume 1, Number 14

CULTURE

Hear Ruth

Ruth Steele, as good-natured and big-hearted as they come, will speak on the Pueblo campus at 3 p.m. Friday, Nov. 4, in AB-085. Her topics will be the Christmas Gift, the Lincoln Home and the history of African Americans in Pueblo. It's FREE -- listen and learn.

Theatre students perform
Theatre and other students will perform Metamorphoses at 7:30 pm in Hoag Theatre on Friday and Saturday the next two weekends. The students have worked hard rehearsing, and this is a steal at $3 for students ($5 for the community).

WEEK'S EVENTS

Friday, Nov. 4:

Guest Speaker: Ruth Steele

Topic: "The Christmas Gift"

3 pm, AB-085

Fri./Sat, Nov. 4-5 and 11-12:

Theatre students perform

Metamorphoses

7:30 pm, Hoag Theatre

Monday/Tuesday, Nov. 7-8:

Disney World presentations

Monday, Nov. 7: 4 pm

Tuesday, Nov. 8: 12:30 pm

CSU-P's Hearthwell Lounge

Wednesday, Nov. 9:

Student Senate meeting

4 pm, PCC Cafeteria

Casino Night

7-10 pm, Fortino Ballroom

Friday, Nov. 11:

WWII plaque rededication

9 am, by CA's flagpoles

NEW WORLD

Note time changes

The times have changed for the Disney World internship info. presentations this week. They are listed above. Expand your world -- many PCC students have done just that through this program.

CASINO NIGHT

Viva Las Pueblo

A little taste of Las Vegas will come to PCC this Wednesday, Nov. 9, when a Casino Night will be held 7-10 p.m. in the Fortino Ballroom. Try your hand at Texas Hold 'em, craps, black jack and bingo, and test your luck at the roulette table. Compete for one of the top three prizes to be given for the most "play money" earned. This has the makings of a 5-Star evening!

OPEN LAB TIMES

Calling all Health students
Open simulation labs are offered to allied health students this month, Here are all the dates & times:

- Tuesday, Nov. 8: Noon - 4 pm
- Tuesday., Nov. 15: Noon - 4 pm
- Thursday, Nov. 17: Noon - 4 pm
- Wed., Nov. 30: 9 am - Noon