MEET CAROLE BERGEMAN

Background: I was born in Canon City and have lived here most of my life. I was a stay-at-home Mom until my youngest daughter was in High School then opened my first Curves franchise. Over the course of 13 years, I owned four clubs from Canon City to Trinidad to Casper, WY and Colorado Springs. I was a mentor for Curves, International for two years then decided I wanted to achieve a life-long dream of obtaining a degree. I am a published author, under the pen name of Diana Danali, and I love to write!

Major: I plan to transfer to CSU after finishing at PCC. I have one more semester after this one then will major in English with an emphasis in creative writing and minor in Women's Studies. If I could, I would be a career student and stay in school forever. I love it!

What do I do when not at school: I am the stage manager for the PCC Drama Club and really enjoy helping to put on our productions. I love to read, walk, and spend time with my kids and grandkids. I travel whenever I can and hope to see Ireland one day! And of course, those neverending trips to Walmart for groceries is at the top of my hobby list!

September event a success!

The September SAC sponsored event was a rousing success. SAC provided fried chicken with all the fixin's, Richard Burke provided music. Many people joined in the fun and a good time was had by all. Quite a bit of food was collected for the food drive, which officially kicks off Monday, October 4th.

SAC sponsored food drive

SAC is sponsoring a food drive, beginning Oct. 4, benefitting those in need in the community over Thanksgiving. Food will be distributed in cooperation with Loaves and Fishes. All items must be donated by November 15.

Highway Clean Up on September 24th

SAC sponsored a Highway Clean Up day on September 24. Several people showed up and helped pick up trash along Hwy 50. PCC is responsible for two miles starting at Veterans Park and going west. Lunch from Subway was provided by SAC.

Thank you Josh Webb, Rick Burke, Sara Vigil, Justin Passero, Michelle Suiters, Elizabeth Hartman, Rachel Moffit, Lorenzo Torres, Tabitha Snyder and Joe Roman.
