WRITING TIP

Provided by PCC's English Department
Is your writing flabby? Trim the fat! If you will write continue, return, or mix instead of still continue, return back, or mix together, your writing will look better and have more energy. Watch out for other flabby phrases such as free gift (if it's a gift, it's free), exact same (if it's not exact, it's not the same), and hollow tube (if it's a tube . . .).

Season's Glitter

Evenings got brighter and more festive on the Pueblo campus last week when the Grounds staff put up the all the holiday decorations for all to enjoy.

'TIS THE SEASON

Catch the holiday celebrations

Faculty and staff on all PCC campuses are invited to get into a festive seasonal mood by taking part in their respective campus' holiday celebration. See calendar at left for details of the events.

Pick up Angel Tree gifts

Students who have signed up to receive Angel Tree gifts for their children are reminded to pick up those gifts between 9 am and 3 pm this Wednesday, Dec. 8, in Davis AB-120.

Join the Cookie Exchange

PCC students, faculty and staff are invited to participate in the Cookie Exchange that will take place from 11:30 am to 1 pm Monday, Dec. 13, in the GC-104 conference room. Participants should plan to bring at least three dozen cookies divided into six half-dozen denominations, including the recipe. You can have pizza and soda there for $6 or bring your own lunch. To participate, sign up by Friday, Dec. 10, by calling 549-3267 or sending an e-mail to cetd@pueblocc.edu.

EXPAND YOURSELF

Timely discussion

Just in time for the holidays, the CTEAL group will have Career Counselor Kathy Johnson lead a "Lunch & Learn" session on how to "Reduce Stress with Time Management" from 12:30 to 1:20 pm on Thursday, Dec. 9, in AB-210Q. All are invited.

Student Government

Fresh off its spirited and highly successful Thanksgiving baskets and Parade of Lights float adventures, Associated Student Government will have its final meeting of 2010 at 4:30 pm this Wednesday, Dec. 8, in the Barb Fortino Room.

I-CAR classes

Our Automotive Collision Tech department will host two I-CAR classes in January for those interested in getting Level I professional development training. The classes:

- "Vehicle Technology and Trends 2011" (NEW11) will meet from 8 a.m. to noon on Jan. 8.
- "Mechanical Systems Analysis" (DAM03) will meet from 8 a.m. to noon on Jan. 22.

Both classes will be held in MT-185. For info, call Jim Torres at 549-3249 or e-mail him at Jim.Torres@pueblocc.edu.

Free OSHA training

PCC students and staff are invited to a free 10-hour OSHA General Industry Certification training opportunity that will take place next week through our Economic and Workforce Development Division. Training will take place from 1 to 5 pm on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday (Dec. 14-15-16) on the Pueblo campus. For info, contact Debbie Clement at 549-3392 by Dec. 10.
