

About the program

The mission of the President's Leadership Program (PLP) at Pueblo Community College (PCC) is to provide a network of academic courses, co-curricula, and service learning opportunities that address intellectual and pragmatic issues of leadership and followership in American Life.

The goals of the President's Leadership Program include:

- To foster a collaborative culture of excellence within a diverse cadre of young leaders for service to PCC and Colorado;
- To encourage civic engagement through service to the community;
- To provide academic, co-curricular and community service conduits for youth leadership in Southern Colorado;
- Sustain and nurture relationships between the President's Leadership Program and campus, community groups, potential PLP candidates', parents, corporate donors, the CSU-Pueblo PLP program, and other civic and philanthropic partners.

President's Leadership Program Outcome Initiatives:

- Personal leadership development
- Leadership skills (communication, motivation, team building, etc.)
- Critical thinking
- Leadership theory
- Civic engagement
- Appreciation for diversity
