

Behavioral Health

Here are just some of the many programs and careers available to Behavioral Health graduates from Pueblo Community College.

Questions? Talk to your instructor or academic advisor.

Associate of Applied Science (AAS) degree in Behavioral Health

- Certified Addiction Counselor (CAC I-II)+
- Behavioral Health Technician
- Applied Behavior Analyst (RBT)
- Community Health Worker
- Social Service Liaison
- Peer Support Mentor

TRANSFER

UCCS Bachelor of Arts in Human Services with an emphasis in Certified Addiction Counselor

- Board Certified Assistant Behavior Analysis (BCaBA)
- Behavior Management Supervisor
- Military Benefits Counselor
- Case Manager
- Mental Health Coordinator
- Rehabilitation Case Worker
- Substance Abuse Counselor

TRANSFER

Master's or Ph.D. in Psychology, Social Work*, Counseling

- Board Certified Behavior Analysis (BCBA and BCBA-D Doctorate)
- Marriage and Family Counseling
- Licensed Addiction Counselor (LAC)
- Professional Counselor
- Executive Director
- Clinical Director
- University Professor

* – Foundations in social work may be required depending on prior education.

+ – Certified Addictions Counselor (CAC I and II) requires additional clinical hours. Several areas may require additional certifications and/or experience and testing to become licensed.