Financial Responsibilities

The costs for the Physical Therapist Assistant (PTA) program at Pueblo Community College for 2017-2018 are $170.50 per credit (less COF stipend) for in-state tuition and $595.25 per credit for out-of-state tuition and fees. Fees also include $20.60 per credit hour for parking, Associated Student Government, Student Activities, Student Center Operation Fees, Recreation Center Fee and Student Life Facility Fee. There is also a Registration fee per semester of $13.00 and a Health Clinic Fee of $23.99 per semester.

Students are also responsible for purchasing Student Identification Card for $10.00; liability insurance for $10.00; drug screens and background checks for incoming students for $66.20 and renewal fee for returning students for $50.80. Students are also responsible for costs associated with immunizations required for internships and all costs associated with internships. An estimate for books course fees for the 5 semesters of the program is approximately $1900.00.

Financial Aid is available through the PCC Financial Aid Office. Additional scholarship and grant information will be posted on the PTA bulletin or disseminated by the PTA faculty.